Sharon Anderson, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Ollie Anderson (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The meditative life and the search for God are encapsulated here in a story. It is not the saga of a renowned Saint or Sage, but the simple and pure expression of love in a small native boy as he discovers truths that blossom out of his own ancient traditions and are experienced anew. Ali sets out from the prairies of his homeland, through a settlement of town-folk and far beyond, seeking to become a man. He learns that in the process, finding happiness is the key. Inspired by the teachings of Yogananda and Swami Kriyananda. This story is illustrated with a vibrancy of charming characters and color, by Sharon s sister Ollie Anderson. They grew up in northwestern Canada where the pristine majesty of nature would serve as the perfect inspirational backdrop for this timeless wilderness quest. brief excerpt: forward -- Grandfather. do all Holy People experience the same God? Of course Ali --truth is truth. What is the truth? That God brought everything into existence out of himself. So. there is only one God? Yes, the one in you And everywhere.
