Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Alumni Bulletin, Vol. 1: Comprising a List of the Graduates of Colorado College to June, 1909, Inclusive Since the founding of Colorado College in 1874, upwards of 4,000 students have entered the school. Of these 438 have graduated. To understand this work, something of the early history of the College is necessary. The records of Colorado College for the years 1874, 1875 and 1876 were burned. From that time up to about the year 1892 the records of all departments seem to have been kept in a single book. Little attempt was made to secure the addresses of students and in many instances even the names were incomplete. Not until about the year 1900 was there any definite system in the matter. In the past the College has published no catalogues containing the names of students. The records of the Dean s office, except for recent years, contain only the names given chronologically as the persons entered the school. No authentic list of students or even of holders of degrees has been made up from...
