RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 50 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1904 edition. Excerpt: . . . this: The trust company should remain a trust company, and should exercise the greatest caution in assuming relations involving responsibility for the value of securities. MR. CHARLES B. HART, Investment Officer, Security Trust Co. , of Wheeling, West Virginia: Mr. Chairman, I move that the paper last read be printed for distribution. I regard it as a paper of great merit and great value. MR. FESLUS j. WADE, President Mercantile Trust Co. , St. Louis: Mr. Chairman, as I understand all these papers will be printed in the proceedings of the Convention, and personally I question very much the wisdom of printing them and sending them broadcast to trust companies that are not members of this Association. They can acquire their information as to the transactions of this Association through the public press, and I do not believe that those who regard this Association as useless and who do not become members of it should receive the benefits of the Association at our expense. We all know that, as in times past, the financial papers publish the addresses and papers that are read here and they can be purchased at from ten to twenty-five cents. I do not believe we should go to the expense suggested, except for the benefit of our own members. MR. CHARLES B. HART: The criticism is obviously so well founded that I beg to withdraw my motion. MR. SHORROCK: Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the reader of...
