Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from George Konig (Late a Representative From Maryland): Memorial Address, Delivered in the House of Representatives of the United States, Sixty-Third Congress The House met at 12 o clock noon. The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D.D., offered the following prayer: Father in heaven, we wait on Thee for Thy blessing, that we may be wise in our conceptions, pure in our motives, strong in our devotion to Thee and in the things which make for good in the relationships of life; in our homes that they may be sacred; in our country, which safeguards our homes, protects our inherent rights; in our religion, which holds us close to Thee in life and in death. Again our hearts are touched by the removal of another Member of this body; he has answered the call which waits on us all - a typical American citizen who dignified labor by faithful service and was called by those who knew him best to serve them in the affairs of State and Nation. Make us faithful to the obligations resting upon us, that we may be prepared to go forward to the larger life without fear or doubting, and comfort those who knew and loved him, especially his wife and children, with bright hopes and anticipations for the continuance of his existence in another of the Fathers many mansions, where they shall join him. And Thine be the praise forever. In the name of Him who taught us the immortality of the soul. Amen. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
