We saw no remains of antiquity, except a few sepulchral excavations and some cisterns. We were admitted to the top of a Sheikh s house, in order to take bearings. The house was built around a small court, in which cattle and horses were stabled. Thence a stone staircase led up to the roof of the house proper; on which, at the northwest and southeast corners, were high single rooms like towers, with a staircase inside leading to the top. In my former work the question was suggested,³ whether perhaps this Tulluzah may not be the representative of the 1 In April 1844, my companion found 28. Tfimmon 80.
