Reviews

Merely no terms to spell out. We have read through and i also am confident that i will gonna read yet again again in the future. You will not sense monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you question me).

C. : Office of Inspector General, Dept. of the Treasury, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)144509010 Subject: Terrorism -- United States -- Prevention -- Accounting. Excerpt: . . . OIG Comment We consider this recommendation to have a management decision with a projected final action date of September 30, 2001. 2. Establish reliable methods for estimating counterterrorism expenses. Management Comments Treasury concurred with this recommendation and stated that the above referenced meeting (s) should address this recommendation as well. OIG Comment We consider this recommendation to have a management decision with a projected final action date of September 30, 2001. 3. Clearly define oversight and review responsibilities to ensure that staff preparing the reports follow OMB directions and report accurate information. Management Comments Treasury concurred with this recommendation. To address it, the Office of Enforcement will assume the lead on the counterterrorism issue now and in the future, with the Office of Budget continuing to function as the interface with OMB. Office of Enforcement officials will also include an addition to its Policies and Procedures Manual, addressing the meeting, reporting, documentation, and oversight requirements for BDRs. They will do this by September 30, 2001. Prior to the end of September, Enforcement will also send a memorandum to the bureaus explaining roles and responsibilities in the BDR process and will include Enforcements expectations of methods procedures documentation for the bureaus to develop and maintain. Counterterrorism Reporting Needs Improvement (OIG-01-081) Page 14 This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
