you get to put the music. Read Cobus lines and try your ear.

Once or twice, its a dirge you may hear, But many more times, like a lark you will trill. For some, a pedagogical pomposity will ring clear, While others will fit the tune of a lyrical loon. Come, join the choir, and bash the drum, Strum the string, crash the cymbal. What a joyous noise, we all shall mingle. This item
