Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Rules for the Government of the Board of President and Directors and Regulations of the St. Louis Public Schools Rule 3. It shall be the duty of the secretary, in all elections, to furnish to the judges and clerk, at each of the respective polls, a printed form of certificates of return, a box for holding the ballots, and a book with the names of the registered voters; and upon receiving the returns of elections, to preserve the same until the next session of the Board thereafter, and deliver them, sealed, to the president. Whenever any vacancy shall occur, he shall notify the Board at its first session thereafter, who shall thereupon order a special election to be held, and notice thereof to be published in two or more of the leading newspapers of the city for at least one week prior to the day on which such election is to be held: Provided, always, that no special election shall be held if such vacancy occur within ninety days prior to the regular election for school director in the ward in which such vacancy shall exist. Rule 4. It shall be the duty of the judges and clerk to fill said form of certificates of returns with the names of the candidates, and the number of votes each received; the votes shall be recorded in the book furnished, and numbered - a corresponding number being set opposite the name of each voter, in the same manner as prescribed by the present law regulating elections in St. Louis City. They shall sign and seal the same, and deliver them to the secretary; for which service each...
