This fair and stainless thing I take To be my badge for virtues sake; Its ample strings that gird me round My constant cable-tow are found. And as securely they are tied So may true faith with me abide; And as I face the sunny South I pledge to God my Masons truth, That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I raise In memory of my Apprentice days. When on the checkered pavement wide, With guage and gavel well supplied, It kept my garments free from soil, Though laboring in a menial toil; And as I face the Golden West, I call my Maker to attest That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I lower--Its Prentice...
